

Abstract Preparation, Submission

ABSTRACT FORMAT: Abstracts must be printed on one side of a single sheet paper with 1-inch margins at the top and sides. Text must be 12-point Times New Roman font. Construct the body of the abstract as follows:

- TITLE in the first line (bolded)
- A blank line.
- Author's name. Begin with the first presenting author (underline the name of presenting author). Each author's first initials, middle initial, with no periods after the initials, full last name. Each author separated by commas.
- Institutional affiliations
- A blank line.
- Abstract. Named titles, bolded, and underlined: Purpose. Methods. Results. and Conclusions. Abstract must not exceed 250 words (the body of the abstract, not the title, author(s) or affiliations).
- Following Conclusions, list funding sources and grant number(s) if applicable.
- Following funding sources, add any conflicts of interest by any of the authors: P (financial interest in product, process of equipment or interest in potentially competing product), I (investor in company, process or product), E (employee of involved company), C (compensation or support received within the past three years of product presented) or None (no financial interest or conflict).

ABSTRACT EXAMPLE:

Comparative ocular surface diseases workshop/// -A pilot study-

H Iwashita, A Saito

Triangle Animal Eye Clinic, Tokyo, Japan

Purpose. To define and have discussions about dry eye diseases in dogs and cats.

Methods. Dogs and cats presented to Triangle Animal Eye Clinic were retrospectively reviewed. ////

Results. One hundred dogs and One hundred cats were included in this study. Mean \pm SD age were////

Conclusion. See you at the 13th COSD workshop. None

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION: Completed abstract and submission forms must be received 31st January, Tue, 2023, via email submission. Late abstracts will not be accepted. The following items must be received as listed by this date:

- Mailed hard copies are no longer accepted. Email your abstract in a PC version of Word as an attachment to cosdw2023@triangle-aec.com
- Email subject line should read: COSDW Abstract
- Email text MUST include presenting author's name, hospital, address, phone, email, and the titles of each attached abstract. Abstracts must be attachments not in-text.